RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

Senate Resolution 55

Senate Resolution 55, introduced by Senators Crider and Houchin:

A SENATE RESOLUTION urging the Indiana State Police to conduct a thorough audit of all untested sexual assault examination kits in the State and provide a report of the findings and recommendations to the Legislative Council before December 1, 2017.

Whereas, There are an undetermined number of untested sexual assault examination kits in the State of Indiana;

Whereas, When tested, sexual assault examination kit evidence can identify an unknown assailant, link crimes together, and identify serial offenders;

Whereas, Sexual assault examination kit evidence can confirm the presence of a known suspect, affirm the survivor's account, discredit the suspect, and exonerate the innocent;

Whereas, Before the State of Indiana can begin addressing the issue of the unknown number of untested sexual assault examination kits, the number of untested kits must first be determined;

Whereas, The testing of untested sexual assault examination kits is essential to the administration of justice in the State of Indiana; and

Whereas, It is fitting that the Indiana General Assembly urges the Indiana State Police to conduct an audit of all untested sexual assault examination kits in the State of Indiana and provide a report of the findings and recommended solutions of that audit to the Legislative Council before December 1, 2017: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly urges the Indiana State Police to conduct a thorough audit of all untested sexual assault examination kits within the State, and that each law enforcement agency, laboratory, or healthcare facility responsible for the collection, storage, or maintenance of sexual assault kits is expected to respond to the Indiana State Police with details as to the number of untested kits possessed, and to the extent possible, the reasons that the kits remain unprocessed, and that the Indiana State Police report to the Legislative Council the findings and recommended solutions of that audit before December 1, 2017.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to the Indiana State Police, Governor Eric Holcomb, Michelle Kuiper, The Joyful Heart Foundation, and the Indiana Coalition to End Sexual Assault.

LONG

Motion prevailed.

RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

Senate Resolution 54

Senate Resolution 54, introduced by Senator Ford:

A SENATE RESOLUTION honoring the Sheldon Swope Art Museum on the occasion of its 75th anniversary.

Whereas, The Sheldon Swope Art Museum, located in Terre Haute, Indiana, was originally funded by a bequest from Michael Sheldon Swope (1843 - 1929), a Civil War veteran and jeweler who lived in Terre Haute for much of his adult life;

Whereas, Planning for the art museum began on September 26, 1939, and the museum was officially opened to the public on March 21, 1942;

Whereas, According to its mission statement, "The Sheldon Swope Art Museum collects, preserves, and celebrates the best in American art with programs and exhibitions designed to engage, stimulate, and educate those whose lives it touches; it enhances the culture and contributes to the economic development of the Greater Wabash Valley";

Whereas, In addition to housing numerous important works, the Swope Art Museum offers summer classes for youths, artist lectures and exhibitions. It sponsors an annual student art exhibition, a tradition which began in May 1967;

Whereas, The founding collection of the museum, assembled by its first director John Rogers Cox, focuses on American regionalism and consists of works by Grant Wood, Thomas Hart Benton, Edward Hopper, Charles Burchfield and Zoltan Sepeshy;

Whereas, The museum has expanded to include art from the second half of the 20th century and early 21st century, including works by Robert Rauschenberg, Andy Warhol, Alexander Calder, Robert Motherwell, Robert Indiana, and Eva Hesse. One gallery is devoted to the Hoosier Group and Indiana artists;

Whereas, Terre Haute artists in the Swope collection include Ray H. French, James Farrington Gookins, Janet Scudder, Amalia Kussner Coudert, Caroline Peddle Ball, Gilbert Wilson and Leroy Lamis;

Whereas, In its many temporary exhibitions, the Swope Art Museum has highlighted work from numerous local artists including Sister Edith Pfau and John Laska;

Whereas, In November 2010, USA Today named the Swope Art Museum one of ten great places to see art in smaller cities; and

Whereas, It is fitting that the Indiana Senate honors the Swope Art Museum on the occasion of its 75th anniversary: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana Senate honors the Swope Art Museum on the occasion of its 75th anniversary.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to Susan Baley, Executive Director of the Swope Art Museum.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 46

Senate Concurrent Resolution 46, introduced by Senators Mishler, Niezgodski, Bohacek and Zakas:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating Nathan Boyd on being named the 2016 Middle School Principal of the Year by the Indiana Association of School Principals.

Whereas, Nathan Boyd grew up in Evansville, Indiana, and received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Ball State University, where he was recognized for his talent as a football player;

Whereas, Mr. Boyd was certain that he wanted to become a special education teacher, and in January of 2003, he began his teaching career at the Youth Opportunity Center while coaching football at Muncie Central High School. From there, he taught for a short duration in Houston, Texas, and then settled with his wife in South Bend, Indiana;

Whereas, Mr. Boyd received his Master of Science degree in Special Education and completed his Educational Leadership Certification at Indiana University South Bend in 2008;

Whereas, As a graduate student at the Indiana University South Bend School of Education, Mr. Boyd was hardworking, persistent, and showed incredible leadership ability. Those who knew him during these years recall that his classmates looked up to him and found his enthusiasm for learning to be an inspiration;

Whereas, Mr. Boyd served as an administrator at LaSalle Academy for nine years, and under his leadership, LaSalle received recognition and accolades at the local, state, and national levels;

Whereas, In November of 2012, Mr. Boyd traveled to Washington, D.C. to receive the National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence award on behalf of LaSalle Intermediate Academy. The school has also received Four Star recognition at the state level for two years in a row, with a congratulatory visit from former Indiana School Superintendent Tony Bennett and South Bend's Mayor Pete Buttigieg;

Whereas, In 2012, Mr. Boyd was recognized as the Exemplary Principal of the Year by the Indiana Association of School Counselors and he was also named Distinguished Alumnus by the Indiana University South Bend School of Education. He has also been recognized as the Ball State Graduate of the Last Decade;

Whereas, Mr. Boyd became Principal of Grissom Middle School in 2013, a school which did not always meet the Penn-Harris-Madison School District's performance expectations;

Whereas, In 2016, after 3 years of rising academic performance at Grissom Middle School, Mr. Boyd was named the District 2 Middle School Principal of the Year by the Indiana Association of School Principals;

Whereas, In 2016, Mr. Boyd was also named the Indiana Middle School Principal of the Year by the Indiana Association of School Principals, and it was during this time that he was also named one of Michiana's "Forty Under Forty", a program that shines a spotlight on the area's most talented and dedicated young executives, professionals and leaders who demonstrate career success and community engagement;

Whereas, While being recognized on the floor of the United States Congress in December of 2016, the Honorable Jackie Walorski shared these words: "Since becoming principal of Grissom Middle School in 2013, Mr. Boyd has been an exemplary educator and administrator. He has maintained the school's record of academic achievement... he has introduced innovative programs and strategies to motivate and inspire students, including the Grissom Drum Brigade and the popular Club Honors. And he has fostered a culture of excellence among the school's teachers to best prepare students for the future. As a principal, Mr. Boyd works each day to create a shared vision and purpose that stays true to Grissom Middle School's motto, 'Good, Better, Best.' Under Mr. Boyd's leadership, Grissom Middle School is providing students a positive, challenging, and academically-oriented learning environment with a focus on building knowledge, reinforcing values, and developing a strong sense of self-worth for every student";

Whereas, Mr. Boyd will represent Indiana at the National Association of Secondary School Principals' recognition program in the fall of 2017, where he will be in the running for the title of National Principal of the Year;

Whereas, According to Marvin Lynn, Dean of Indiana University South Bend School of Education, it was clear to Mr. Boyd's professors and classmates in the School of Education in 2008, and it is clear to the world now, that Mr. Nathan Boyd's success as a visionary and hugely impactful leader is driven by his desire to simply "do good" in the world as an exemplary servant leader;

Whereas, The people of Indiana owe a great deal of thanks to citizens such as Nathan Boyd who have dedicated themselves to the education and wellness of Hoosier students; and

Whereas, It is fitting that the Indiana General Assembly congratulates Nathan Boyd on being named the 2016 Middle School Principal of the Year by the Indiana Association of School Principals: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates Nathan Boyd on being named the 2016 Indiana Middle School Principal of the Year by the Indiana Association of School Principals.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to Nathan Boyd.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote. The Chair instructed the Secretary to inform the House of the passage of the resolution. House sponsors: Representatives J. Taylor, Wesco, Bauer, Dvorak and DeVon.
