RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

Senate Resolution 50

Senate Resolution 50, introduced by Senator Head:

A SENATE RESOLUTION honoring Indiana's community foundations as a part of the centennial anniversary of the founding of the first community foundation.

Whereas, The first community foundation was created in Cleveland, Ohio in 1914, with a vision to pool the charitable resources of community members into a single, worthwhile and permanent endowment for the benefit of all, and within five years community foundations were established in nine other major cities throughout the country, including Indianapolis;

Whereas, The community foundation field in the United States has since grown over its 100-year history to more than 800 foundations across the country;

Whereas, Indiana has had more growth in community foundations than any other state, with every county in Indiana being served by a local community foundation;

Whereas, Thanks to Indiana's community foundations, local residents who have an in-depth understanding of their communities' issues and needs are able to combine their charitable funds and the future earnings from those gifts for the benefit of all, improving the quality of life in those areas; and

Whereas, These organizations in Indiana have grown over the past 20 years from $100 million to now collectively managing more than $2 billion in assets and providing grants of approximately $117 million in 2012 alone, making Indiana's community foundations collectively among the largest instruments for community good in the country: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana Senate congratulates the community foundation field on its centennial anniversary and thanks Indiana's local foundations for their service to communities all across the state.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to The Indiana Philanthropy Alliance.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote.

SENATE MOTION

Madam President: I move that the following memorial resolution be adopted:

HCR 41 Senator Breaux
Memorializing Robert Carter.

LONG

Motion prevailed.

RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

House Concurrent Resolution 41

House Concurrent Resolution 41, sponsored by Senator Breaux:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION memorializing Robert Carter.

Whereas, Robert "Bob" Carter was born December 4, 1929, in Decatur, Illinois, where he grew up as a passionate lover of music before earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in theater and radio communications from Millikin University and a Master of Science degree from Syracuse University in television production;

Whereas, Bob Carter began his legendary broadcasting career working in small radio and television markets in various roles, including stints as a weatherman in Peoria, Illinois, and as a disc jockey at a Fort Wayne, Indiana, radio station owned by Sarkes Tarzian;

Whereas, Bob Carter's early broadcasting work included filling in for Dick Clark on American Bandstand as a guest disc jockey and creating the famous advertising slogan "Finger Lickin' Good" for Kentucky Fried Chicken as an ad lib during a live commercial;

Whereas, In 1961, Bob Carter went to work at the Sarkes Tarzian-owned WTTV Channel 4 television station located at 3490 Bluff Road on the south side of Indianapolis, Indiana, where he filled the positions of producer, director, and performer, including hosting a three-hour morning talk show called "Coffee with Carter" and serving as on-air announcer for "Championship Wrestling";

Whereas, In 1962, after WTTV purchased a package of 52 horror films from Universal Studios, Bob Carter was chosen to host a new program featuring these films on late Friday nights called "Shock Theater", subsequently renamed "Nightmare Theater", for which he created the character of Sammy Terry, a play on the word "cemetery", whose ghoulish face, wrapped in a hooded cloak, and sinister, guttural laugh, along with his eight legged sidekick, an arachnid named George, frightened, delighted, bemused, amused, and entertained audiences for over four decades;

Whereas, After 10 years of on air performances and live appearances, Bob Carter as Sammy Terry had become such a popular and beloved entertainer of Hoosiers that Governor Edgar Whitcomb proclaimed October 31, 1972, Halloween, of course, as Sammy Terry Day throughout the State of Indiana;

Whereas, After the initial run of "Nightmare Theater" ended around 1976 and was off the air for a few years, Bob Carter devoted his time to the Family Music Center music store located at 46th Street and North Shadeland Avenue in Indianapolis, which he owned and operated until the store closed in 2001. The Family Music Center sold musical instruments, provided music lessons, offered a legendary selection of sheet music, and allowed Carter to help start many band programs in Indianapolis parochial schools;

Whereas, Bob Carter was one of the first inductees into the Horror Host Hall of Fame in 2011 and was inducted into the Indiana Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2013; and

Whereas, Bob Carter passed away June 30, 2013, and is survived by his wife of 60 years, Phyllis, his daughter Katherine, his daughter Elizabeth, his son David, and his son Mark, who continues his father's Sammy Terry legacy, as well as 14 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly acknowledges Robert Rockwell Carter as an Indiana broadcast pioneer, as the creator of Sammy Terry, the longest running and one of the most iconic horror movie hosts from the Golden Age of Television, and as a devoted music educator.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the family of Robert Rockwell Carter with "many pleasant nightmares."

The resolution was read in full and adopted by standing vote. The Chair instructed the Secretary to inform the House of the passage of the resolution.
