COMMITTEE REPORT

Madam President: The Senate Committee on Rules & Legislative Procedure, to which was referred Senate Bill 66, has had the same under consideration and begs leave to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that said bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

SECTION 1. IC 16-42-26 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW CHAPTER TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2015]:

Chapter 26. Investigational Treatments

Sec. 1. As used in this chapter, "eligible individual" means an individual whose treating physician, licensed under IC 25-22.5, determines and documents all of the following:

- (1) The individual has a terminal illness.
- (2) The individual has considered all treatment options for the terminal illness that are currently approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration.
- (3) The treating physician has recommended an investigational treatment for the individual's terminal illness.
- (4) The individual, or the parent or personal representative of the individual, has given informed consent for the individual to receive the investigational treatment.

Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, "informed consent" means a written document signed by an individual or the individual's parent or personal representative, the individual's treating physician, and a witness, that includes all of the following:

- (1) An explanation of currently approved treatments for the individual's terminal illness.
- (2) Confirmation that the individual concurs with the treating physician that currently approved treatments are unlikely to prolong the individual's life.
- (3) Clear identification of the specific investigational treatment that the individual wishes to undergo.
- (4) A description of all potential outcomes of the investigational treatment, and the most likely outcome for the individual:

(A) including the possibility that:

- (i) unanticipated or different symptoms; and
- (ii) death;

may result from the investigational treatment; and (B) based on the treating physician's knowledge of the:

- (i) investigational treatment; and
- (ii) individual's condition.

(5) A statement that a third party payer is not, unless otherwise required by law or contract, obligated to pay for:

(A) investigational treatment; or

(B) care that is required as a result of the investigational treatment.

(6) A statement that the individual's:

(A) eligibility for hospice care may be withdrawn if the individual begins the investigational treatment; and

(B) hospice care may be reinstated if the investigational treatment ends and the individual meets the eligibility requirements for hospice care.

(7) A statement that the individual understands that:

(A) the individual is liable for all expenses resulting from the investigational treatment; and

(B) the liability extends to the individual's estate;

unless a contract between the individual or the individual's parent or personal representative and the manufacturer of the investigational treatment provides otherwise.

Sec. 3. As used in this chapter, "investigational treatment" means a drug, biological product, or device:

(1) for which a Phase I clinical trial approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration has been successfully completed;

(2) that is currently under investigation in a clinical trial approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration; and

(3) for which approval for general use by the federal Food and Drug Administration has not been granted.

Sec. 4. As used in this chapter, "terminal illness" means a progressive disease or medical or surgical condition that:

(1) causes significant functional impairment;

(2) is not considered by the treating physician to be reversible with administration of available treatment that is currently approved by the federal Food and Drug Administration; and

(3) without life sustaining procedures will result in imminent death.

Sec. 5. (a) A manufacturer of an investigational treatment may, but is not required to, make the investigational treatment available to an eligible individual.

(b) A manufacturer of an investigational treatment may provide the investigational treatment to an eligible individual with or without compensation for the:

(1) cost of the investigational treatment; and

(2) costs arising from the use of the investigational treatment.

Sec. 6. (a) This chapter does not require any of the following:

(1) Coverage of an investigational treatment under a health plan that is regulated under IC 27.

(2) Payment by a government agency of the:

(A) cost of an investigational treatment; or

(B) costs arising from the use of an investigational treatment.

(3) Provision of health care services:

(A) by a health care entity that is licensed under this title; and

(B) in connection with an investigational treatment.

(b) A health plan that is regulated under IC 27 or a government health care program may, but is not required to, provide coverage for the:

(1) cost of an investigational treatment; or

(2) costs arising from the use of an investigational treatment.

Sec. 7. (a) The medical licensing board may not revoke the license of, refuse to renew the license of, or take another disciplinary action against a treating physician under IC 25-22.5 based solely on the treating physician's recommendation to an eligible individual concerning an investigational treatment.

(b) A person that is responsible for Medicare certification of a treating physician may not take action against the treating physician's Medicare certification based solely on the treating physician's recommendation to an eligible individual concerning an investigational treatment.

Sec. 8. (a) An official, employee, or agent of the state who recklessly, knowingly, or intentionally attempts to prevent, or prevents, an eligible individual from receiving an investigational treatment under this chapter commits a Class B misdemeanor.

(b) A licensed health care provider that provides counseling, advice, or a recommendation that is consistent with medical standards of care does not violate subsection (a).

Sec. 9. This chapter does not create a private right of action against:

(1) the manufacturer of an investigational treatment; or

(2) another person involved in the care of an eligible individual receiving an investigational treatment;

if the manufacturer or other person acts in good faith compliance with this chapter and exercises reasonable care.

SECTION 2. IC 35-52-16-90.4 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2015]: Sec. 90.4. IC 16-42-26-8 defines a crime concerning investigational treatments.

(Reference is to SB 66 as introduced.)

and when so amended that said bill be reassigned to the Senate Committee on Health & Provider Services.

COMMITTEE REPORT

Madam President: The Senate Committee on Rules & Legislative Procedure, to which was referred Senate Bill 80, has had the same under consideration and begs leave to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that said bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

SECTION 1. IC 6-10 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW ARTICLE TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]:

ARTICLE 10. TAXATION OF INTERNET ACCESS

Chapter 1. Prohibition on State or Local Tax on Internet Access

Sec. 1. As used in this chapter, "Internet" means the myriad of computer and telecommunications facilities, including equipment and operating software, that comprises the interconnected worldwide network of networks that employ the Transmission Control Protocol/Internet Protocol (or any predecessor or successor protocols to that protocol) to communicate information of all kinds by wire or radio.

Sec. 2. (a) As used in this chapter, "Internet access" means a service that enables users to connect to the Internet to access content, information, or other services offered over the Internet, without regard to whether the service is referred to telecommunications, communications, transmission, or similar services, and without regard to whether a provider of the service is subject to regulation by the Federal Communications Commission as a common carrier under 47 U.S.C. 201 et seq.

(b) The term also includes the following:

(1) The purchase, use, or sale of communications services, including telecommunications services (as defined in IC 6-2.5-1-27.5), by a provider of a service described in subsection (a), to the extent the communications services are purchased, used, or sold to provide the service described in subsection (a) or to otherwise enable users to access content, information, or other services offered over the Internet.

(2) Services that are incidental to the provision of a service described in subsection (a), when furnished to users as part of such service, including a home page, electronic mail and instant messaging (including voice-capable and video-capable electronic mail and instant messaging), video clips, and personal electronic storage capacity.

(3) A home page, electronic mail and instant messaging (including voice-capable and video-capable electronic mail and instant messaging), video clips, and personal electronic storage capacity that are provided independently or that are not packaged with Internet access.

(c) The term does not include:

(1) voice, audio, or video programming; or

(2) other products and services, except services described in subsection (a) or (b), that use Internet protocol or any successor protocol and for which there is a charge, regardless of whether the charge is

LONG, CHAIR

Report adopted.

separately stated or aggregated with the charge for services described in subsection (a) or (b).

Sec. 3. (a) As used in this chapter, the term "tax" means:
(1) any charge that is imposed by the state or a political subdivision of the state for the purpose of generating revenues for governmental purposes and, except as provided in subsection (b), is not a fee imposed for a specific privilege, service, or benefit conferred; or
(2) the imposition on a seller of an obligation to collect and to remit to the state or a political subdivision of the state any gross retail tax, sales tax, or use tax imposed on a buyer by such a governmental entity.

(b) The term does not include any franchise fee or similar fee imposed by the Indiana utility regulatory commission under IC 8-1-34-23 under Section 622 or 653 of the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 542, 47 U.S.C. 573), or any other fee related to obligations or telecommunications carriers under the Communications Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 151 et seq.), except to the extent that:

(1) the fee is not imposed for the purpose of recovering direct costs incurred by the franchising or other governmental authority from providing the specific privilege, service, or benefit conferred to the payor of the fee; or

(2) the fee is imposed for the use of a public right-of-way based on a percentage of the service revenue and the fee exceeds the incremental direct costs incurred by the governmental authority associated with the provision of that right-of-way to the provider of Internet access service.

(c) For purposes of subsection (b), "direct costs" means costs incurred by a governmental authority solely because of an Internet service provider's use of the public right-of-way. The term does not include costs that the governmental authority would have incurred if the Internet service provider did not make such use of the public right-of-way. Direct costs shall be determined in a manner consistent with generally accepted accounting principles.

Sec. 4. (a) As used in this chapter, "tax on Internet access or the use of Internet access" means a tax on Internet access, or any use of Internet access, regardless of whether the tax is imposed on a provider of Internet access or a buyer of Internet access and regardless of the terminology used to describe the tax.

(b) The term does not include a tax levied upon or measured by net income, capital stock, net worth, or property value.

Sec. 5. Neither the state nor a political subdivision of the state may impose, assess, collect, or attempt to collect a tax (including a tax under IC 6-2.5) on Internet access or the use of Internet access.

SECTION 2. An emergency is declared for this act.

(Reference is to SB 80 as introduced.)

and when so amended that said bill be reassigned to the Senate Committee on Tax & Fiscal Policy.

LONG, CHAIR

(2) All votes during the meeting must be taken by roll call vote.

Nothing in this section affects the public's right to attend a meeting at the place where the meeting is conducted and the minimum number of members is physically present.

(e) Each member of the commission is required to physically attend at least one (1) meeting of the commission annually. Each member of the executive board is required to physically attend at least one (1) meeting of the executive board annually.

(f) The commission may adopt a policy to govern participation in the meetings of the commission or the executive board by electronic communication. The policy may do any of the following:

(1) Require a member to request authorization to participate in a meeting by electronic communication within a certain number of days before the meeting to allow for arrangements to be made for the member's participation by electronic communication.

(2) Limit the number of meetings in a calendar year in which any one (1) member may participate by electronic communication.

(3) Provide that a member who participates in a meeting by electronic communication may not cast the deciding vote on any official action.

(4) Require a member participating in a meeting by electronic communication to confirm in writing the votes cast by the member during the meeting within a certain number of days after the date of the meeting.

(5) Provide that in addition to the location where a meeting is conducted, the public may also attend some or all meetings, excluding executive sessions, at a public place or public places at which a member is physically present and participates by electronic communication. If the commission's policy includes this provision, a meeting notice must provide the following information:

(A) The identity of each member who will be physically present at a public place and participate in the meeting by electronic communication.

(B) The address and telephone number of each public place where a member will be physically present and participate by electronic communication.

(C) Unless the meeting is an executive session, a statement that a location described in clause (B) will be open and accessible to the public.

(6) Establish any other procedures, limitations, or conditions that govern participation in meetings of the commission by electronic communication and are not in conflict with this chapter.

(g) Nothing in this section affects the commission's right to exclude the public from an executive session in which a member participates by electronic communication."
