RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

Senate Concurrent Resolution 31

Senate Concurrent Resolution 31, introduced by Senator Lanane:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring the act of heroism performed by Tanner King.

Whereas, During an afternoon of sledding at an Anderson golf course, ten year old Ashlynn Wainscott ventured off the course with some friends;

Whereas, Ashlynn Wainscott ventured onto the ice of the nearby White River. Under her weight, the ice broke, and she plunged waist deep into the freezing water;

Whereas, Then, Tanner King, a fourteen year old freshman at Anderson High School, sprang into action. He rushed to the scene and cleared the other children out of the way;

Whereas, Tanner King, using water rescue training he learned from the Boy Scouts of America, got on his stomach to distribute his weight more evenly across the ice, slid across the ice to reach Ashlynn, and pulled her out of the water; and

Whereas, Tanner's quick thinking and bravery saved Ashlynn Wainscott's life and deserves recognition by the Indiana General Assembly: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

SECTION 1. The Indiana General Assembly honors and congratulates Tanner King for his act of heroism.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to Tanner King, his family, Ashlynn Wainscott's family, and Tanner King's Scoutmaster Tom Sheahan.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote. The Chair instructed the Secretary to inform the House of the passage of the resolution. House sponsor: Representative Austin.

SENATE MOTION

Madam President: I move that the following resolutions be adopted:

SR 41 Senator Grooms
Recognizing and honoring Indiana's African American heritage and history.

SR 42 Senator Ford
Commemorating the 150th anniversary of the SS Sultana.

SR 43 Senator Grooms
Congratulating Highland Hills Middle School.

LONG

Motion prevailed.

RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

Senate Resolution 41

Senate Resolution 41, introduced by Senator Grooms:

A SENATE RESOLUTION recognizing and honoring Indiana's rich African American heritage and history, particularly through the Indiana African American Heritage Trail.

Whereas, The state of Indiana is rich in African American heritage and history;

Whereas, As a neighbor of Kentucky, early in its history Indiana was a strategic location for runaway slaves seeking freedom and safe passage to the North;

Whereas, Popular understanding of Indiana black history normally focuses on post-Civil War African American migration to cities in the North, but fails to reveal this initial history and the stories of free blacks and formerly enslaved people who settled in Indiana even before it was a state;

Whereas, These untold stories have the potential to add a level of understanding to our knowledge of black heritage and history;

Whereas, Indiana Landmarks, through its African American Landmarks Committee, has worked for several years to preserve and protect significant African American sites and structures to build on this history and understanding;

Whereas, The Indiana Historical Society recently spearheaded a state-wide data collection effort that will provide a comprehensive knowledge base of Indiana's early African American settlers as well, and currently, there are several places where Hoosiers can further their knowledge of our state's African American heritage and history;

Whereas, In particular, the Indiana African American Heritage Trail was founded by Maxine F. Brown in 2004, and names those individuals and marks the sites that were instrumental in the history of African Americans in Indiana from the early 1800s to the late 1900s;

Whereas, The trail currently runs through Clark, Floyd, Gibson, Harrison, Jefferson, and Orange Counties, with the goal of extending the trail throughout all ninety-two counties in the future to promote cultural heritage tourism;

Whereas, African American entrepreneurs can also contribute to a more thorough understanding of black history and heritage in Indiana through the establishment of tourism-related businesses and by promoting cultural heritage tourism; and

Whereas, African Americans reflect a legacy of courage and dedication that has helped to guide Indiana's success and prosperity: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana Senate recognizes Indiana's rich African American heritage and history, particularly through the Indiana African American Heritage Trail.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this Resolution to the trail's founder, Maxine F. Brown, and the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Southern Indiana Minority Enterprise Initiative, Inc., Gary L. Leavell.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote.

Senate Resolution 42

Senate Resolution 42, introduced by Senator Ford:

A SENATE RESOLUTION commemorating the 150th anniversary of the sinking of the SS Sultana and honoring the thousands of Civil War soldiers, most of them returning from Confederate prisoner of war camps, for their service, sacrifice, and courage.

Whereas, On April 27, 1865, the steamboat Sultana suffered a boiler explosion and sank seven miles north of Memphis, Tennessee;

Whereas, The United States Army had chartered the Sultana to transport approximately 2,300 Union prisoners of war back home to the North from Vicksburg, Mississippi;

Whereas, The prisoners of war had been recently released from the Confederate prisons at Andersonville, Georgia, and Cahaba, Alabama;

Whereas, Overall, 1,700 individuals died in the tragic accident, and of the 407 Indiana soldiers aboard the Sultana, 236 perished;

Whereas, The loss of life was greater than the loss on the

Titanic, and the event remains the worst recorded maritime disaster in the history of the United States, with even the 560 survivors suffering burns, broken bones, hypothermia, and near drowning; and

Whereas, The lives and service of those Civil War soldiers lost in the sinking of the SS Sultana, particularly the Indiana members, should be honored and recognized: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana Senate commemorates the 150th anniversary of the sinking of the SS Sultana and honors the thousands of Civil War soldiers aboard the Sultana, particularly the 407 Indiana soldiers, for their service, sacrifice, and courage.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this Resolution to Jim Buffington and Gene Eric Salecker.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote.

Senate Resolution 43

Senate Resolution 43, introduced by Senator Grooms:

A SENATE RESOLUTION congratulating Highland Hills Middle School for being named a 2015 "School to Watch" by the National Forum to Accelerate Middle-Grades Reform.

Whereas, Highland Hills Middle School, located in Georgetown, Indiana, has been named a 2015 School to Watch by the National Forum to Accelerate Middle-Grades Reform;

Whereas, Schools to Watch is an initiative launched by the National Forum to Accelerate Middle-Grades Reform in 1999;

Whereas, Through the Schools to Watch initiative, the National Forum identifies schools across the United States that are well on their way to meeting the Forum's criteria for high performance;

Whereas, The Forum's three conditions for bestowing the award take into account whether the school is academically excellent, developmentally responsive, and socially equitable;

Whereas, To achieve this level of excellence, high performing schools such as Highland Hills Middle School establish norms, structures, and organizational arrangements to support and sustain their trajectory towards excellence with a sense of purpose that drives every facet of practice and decision-making;

Whereas, This national title has been earned by only a few schools in the State of Indiana;

Whereas, With this new title comes the opportunity for Highland Hills Middle School to send a small team of educators to attend the Schools to Watch Conference in Washington, D.C. in Summer 2015; and

Whereas, It is fitting that the Indiana Senate gives special recognition to Highland Hills Middle School for its substantial contribution to education in the State of Indiana: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana Senate congratulates Highland Hills Middle School for being named a 2015 School to Watch by the National Forum to Accelerate Middle-Grades Reform.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this Resolution to Highland Hills Middle School Principal Steve Griffin, Assistant Principal Dr. Dwight Beall, and Assistant Principal Emily Hatton.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote.

RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

House Concurrent Resolution 43

House Concurrent Resolution 43, sponsored by Senator Merritt:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing the Centennial of Bosma Enterprises, Inc.

Whereas, In 1915 the State of Indiana authorized the creation of the Board of Industrial Aid for the Blind and provided a $10,000 annual budget to create opportunities to improve the lives of people who had lost their sight;

Whereas, The Board established an industrial training program to teach skills to adult men who lost their eyesight so they could work in the Board's workshop or other industrial settings;

Whereas, Since the first product the workshop produced was brooms, which were sold all over the state, the program has grown to offering a wide variety of high-quality products and services to government agencies and private sector companies across North America;

Whereas, Returning World War I veterans with disabilities were provided skills training through the Soldier's Rehabilitation Act that were ultimately expanded to provide vocational rehabilitation to include anyone with a disability;

Whereas, By 1943 with millions of men and women off fighting the war, employers began looking to people with disabilities to fill the job vacancies, and the Vocational Rehabilitation program doubled in size as stereotypes began to change about the abilities of people with disabilities;

Whereas, The Board of Industrial Aid was dissolved in 1953 and the workshop and rehabilitation program were placed under the control of Indiana Rehabilitation Services, which later merged with the Indiana Department of Human Services;

Whereas, In 1984 Indiana renamed the agency the Charles E. Bosma Industries for the Blind after State Senator Charles Bosma, a well-known advocate in the Indiana General Assembly for people with disabilities;

Whereas, State budget considerations lead the State to announce in 1986 that it would close the workshop, one of the few places someone who was blind could work in the Indianapolis area;

Whereas, a small group of dedicated individuals formed a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization and completed negotiations with the State in 1988 to take over what had formerly been Bosma Industries for the Blind, thus preserving the employment and job readiness skills training for people who were blind;

Whereas, In 2006 the state transitioned all state-run rehabilitation services for people who are blind or visually impaired to Bosma;

Whereas, Employment opportunities at Bosma have grown from brooms and textiles through brake line assembly, dry food packaging, surgical and examination glove packaging, health and safety kit packaging, contract packaging and warehousing, Ice Melt packaging, and a full line of digital printing services;

Whereas, The 1990 passage of the Americans with Disabilities Act has opened doors for people with disabilities and provided access allowing people the right to pursue opportunities and live life to their greatest potential; and

Whereas, For 100 years Bosma Enterprises has consistently created services and opportunities for persons with vision disabilities to live meaningful lives, Bosma Enterprises now looks forward to even greater opportunities in the years ahead in providing services and training to assist clients in navigating blindness: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly thanks Bosma Enterprises for its century of dedicated services to the thousands of people whose lives have been enriched by its many programs and its caring and dedicated personnel.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives transmit a copy of this resolution to Bosma Enterprises.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote. The Chair instructed the Secretary to inform the House of the passage of the resolution.
