RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

Senate Concurrent Resolution 66

Senate Concurrent Resolution 66, introduced by Senators Niezgodski and Bohacek:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION celebrating Claeys Candy serving the South Bend community with 100 years of business.

Whereas, Claeys Candy specializes in old-fashioned hard candy, fudge, peanut brittle, and chocolates. Their most popular local confection is the hand-crafted Chocolate Charlie, made with milk chocolate, roasted peanuts, and marshmallow;

Whereas, In addition to being a renowned treat among locals, Claeys Candy is nationally recognized for their popular Claeys Old Fashion Hard candies;

Whereas, Gregg Claeys is the third-generation owner of Claeys Candy, the business that his grandfather, Jerome Claeys, began 100 years ago out of a garage on North Blaine Avenue. When he started the business, Mr. Claeys made his candy by hand, and some candies only cost five cents;

Whereas, The company continues to hand craft candies the old-fashioned way. Since its beginning, Gregg Claeys has blossomed into a major candy supplier, shipping and distributing candies beyond the borders of Indiana;

Whereas, Throughout the years, the company has stayed true to its original candy recipes. To support the successful and traditional business, Claeys Candy employs a staff of committed, passionate, and hardworking people;

Whereas, Claeys Candy has received the Governor's Century Award; and

Whereas, Despite different candies coming and going throughout the years, Claeys Candy has been providing a sweet service consistently for the past century and plans on continuing to do so: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates Claeys Candy for 100 years of service to South Bend and extends best wishes to the company and its staff for continued success.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to Gregg Claeys.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote. The Chair instructed the Secretary to inform the House of the passage of the resolution. House sponsors: Representatives Bauer, DeVon, Dvorak and Deal.

Senate Resolution 73

Senate Resolution 73, introduced by Senator Messmer:

A SENATE RESOLUTION honoring James Goodhue on his retirement as Director of the Jasper High School bands.

Whereas, After 29 years as Band Director at Jasper High School, James Goodhue will retire after the 2018-2019 school year;

Whereas, James graduated from the University of Evansville with a music education degree in 1986, and from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign with a masters degree in clarinet performance in 1988;

Whereas, After earning his masters degree, James taught two years at Fountain Central High School in Veedersburg, Indiana, before moving to Jasper High School in 1990;

Whereas, James started as Jasper High School's Assistant Band Director before becoming Band Director in 1997;

Whereas, In his time as Band Director, the Jasper High School Marching Wildcats have made 29 consecutive state championship appearances, resulting in many top-five placements, four runner-up distinctions, and a state title in 2012, and the Jasper High School Concert Band has experienced similar success, with the group finishing in the top-16 in 21 of the last 26 years; and

Whereas, Upon retirement, James plans to continue giving private lessons to Greater Jasper Schools students, remain a substitute member of the Evansville Philharmonic Orchestra, and spend time with his wife, Heather, and sons, Jack and Jace: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana Senate honors James Goodhue upon his retirement as Director of the Jasper High School Bands.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to James Goodhue and his family.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote.

Senate Resolution 74

Senate Resolution 74, introduced by Senator Tallian:

A SENATE RESOLUTION congratulating the Marquette Catholic girls basketball team on their Class A basketball championship.

Whereas, The Marquette Catholic girls basketball team, also called "The Blazers", won the Class A state title after defeating Vincennes Rivet 57-36 at the Bankers Life Fieldhouse in Indianapolis;

Whereas, The team consists of teammates Sophia Nolan, Ryleigh Grott, Clair Salyer, Kassandra Loza, Dia Rallings, Emmerly Joseph, Morgan Crook, Ukari Payne, Emma Nolan, Jordan Goodwin, Ally McConnell, and Nathaly Reynaga;

Whereas, Special congratulations are given to seniors Emma and Sophia Nolan, the twins who collectively scored 38 out of the 57 points;

Whereas, The Marquette Catholic girls basketball team has supported each other throughout the season both on and off the court. The team's work ethic, talent, and commitment has made them successful student athletes who demonstrate leadership qualities in their academic, athletic, and personal lives;

Whereas, Katie Collignon is the coach of the Marquette Catholic Girls Basketball Team. Ms. Collignon guided the team to the school's first basketball state title in just her second year of coaching and is known for her leadership qualities; and

Whereas, The Marquette Catholic Girls Basketball Team is the first Region team to be back-to-back champions since Crown Point in 1984 and 1985. They are applauded for this athletic achievement and for showing resilience as dedicated student athletes: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana Senate congratulates the Marquette Catholic girls basketball team on their state title and wishes them all the best in their future endeavors.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this Resolution to the Marquette Catholic girls basketball team.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote.

Senate Resolution 75

Senate Resolution 75, introduced by Senator Tallian:

A SENATE RESOLUTION congratulating the Chesterton High School girls gymnastics team on winning the 2019 Indiana High School Athletic Association (IHSAA) Gymnastic State Championship.

Whereas, The Chesterton High School girls gymnastics team has achieved its second state consecutive state championship title. This success is the team's fifth state title;

Whereas, The 2019 IHSAA Gymnastics State Championship meet took place at Noblesville High School. The Chesterton gymnasts excelled and were crowned state champions in all four events of the competition;

Whereas, The team has worked incredibly hard for their success and has supported each other through countless practices. In addition to their work ethic, the members of the Chesterton High School girls gymnastics team have heart and passion for their sport, consistently demonstrated through their performances;

Whereas, The success of the Chesterton High School girls gymnastics team is dependent upon the team's leadership, in addition to the dedication of its members.

Whereas, The head coach of the team is Dawn Matthys, who has helped guide and mentor the team. The assistants are Christy Dzierba, Alana Linn, and Elizabeth Kozak;

Whereas, The members of the Chesterton High School girls gymnastics team are Lexi Avey, Caity Bogue, Jordan Bush, Caitlyn Cook, Alyssa Donovan, Hailee Ellenwood, Sophia Hunzelman, Helen Jackson, Danielle Konotos, Chloe Larson, Baylie Lawson, Emily Lewis, Belle Marchetti, Mia Pak, Kenzie Sharp, Whitney Siewin, Jamie Stento, Julia Turner, Abby Winland, and Paris Zubeck;

Whereas, Senior team member Jordan Bush was named the Mildred M. Ball Mental Attitude Winner following a remarkable performance on the floor, where she gave her best effort to enjoy her final high school floor routine; and

Whereas, These gymnasts exemplify the hard work that student athletes expend in order to achieve balance in their academic, athletic, and personal lives. The girls of the Chesterton gymnastics team have certainly demonstrated this balance and commitment as student athletes: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana Senate hereby congratulates the Chesterton High School girls gymnastics team on their state championship title and wishes them all the best in their future endeavors.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this Resolution to the Chesterton High School girls gymnastics team and coaches.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 56

Senate Concurrent Resolution 56, introduced by Senators Buchanan and Boots:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating the Western Boone High School football team on winning the 2018 Indiana High School Athletic Association ("IHSAA") Class 2A state championship title.

Whereas, Finishing the season undefeated for the first time in school history, the Western Boone High School football team defeated Eastbrook in a come-from-behind 34-20 win to claim the 2018 IHSAA Class 2A state championship title;

Whereas, In advancing to the state championship game, the Stars defeated Indianapolis George Washington, Tipton, and North Putnam to win the sectional championship, Indianapolis Sccecina Memorial to win the regional championship, and Southridge to win the semi-state championship;

Whereas, Trailing 14-10 at halftime, Western Boone recovered an onside kick attempt by Eastbrook to open the second half, and on the first play of the second half junior quarterback Spencer Wright found senior wide receiver Logan Benson for a 56-yard score to put the Stars ahead 17-14;

Whereas, Western Boone sealed the game in the final quarter with freshman kicker Elliot Young's second field goal, and the fourth touchdown pass from Spencer Wright to Logan Benson;

Whereas, Spencer Wright completed 24 of 34 passes for 317 yards and rushed for a game-high 82 yards, and Logan Benson had 9 catches for 159 yards with four touchdown receptions, setting a new IHSAA and Class 2A record for most receiving touchdowns;

Whereas, Following the championship performance, senior Peyton Young was named the winner of the Blake Ress Mental Attitude Award for Class 2A football; and

Whereas, Led by head coach Justin Pelley, Western Boone earned the school's second state championship title in football: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates the Western Boone High School football team on winning the 2018 IHSAA Class 2A state championship title.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this Resolution to each member of the Western Boone High School football team.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote. The Chair instructed the Secretary to inform the House of the passage of the resolution. House sponsor: Representative T. Brown.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 57

Senate Concurrent Resolution 57, introduced by Senators Buchanan and Charbonneau:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating the Rensselaer Central High School livestock judging team on winning the 2017 FFA National Livestock Judging Competition and participation in a 2018 international competition.

Whereas, The Rensselaer Central High School livestock judging team took first place at the 2017 FFA National Livestock Judging Competition;

Whereas, Rensselaer's 2017 FFA National Livestock judging team consisted of Paige Longstreth, Zach Wamsley, Anna Hannon, and Cody Goodman;

Whereas, The 2017 Rensselaer livestock judging team placed high in the state of Indiana which qualified them for the FFA

National Livestock Judging Competition;

Whereas, The 2017 placement is the first national win for Rensselaer Central since 1994;

Whereas, In the FFA Division of these competitions, there have only been two Indiana schools that have won nationally in nearly 100 years;

Whereas, The Rensselaer team's first place showing at the FFA national competition earned the team the opportunity to travel to the 2018 Scotland Royal Highland Livestock Show where they competed against teams from around the world;

Whereas, Rensselaer's 2018 international team consisted of Paige Longstreth, Zach Wamsley, Caleb Wamsley, and Anna Hannon;

Whereas, The 2018 Rensselaer livestock judging team was the only team representing Indiana at the Royal Highland Livestock Show;

Whereas, While in Scotland, Caleb Wamsley and Zach Wamsley were awarded 3rd place honors for partner sheep judging; and

Whereas, Zach Wamsley, Paige Longstreth, and Cody Wamsley each received a college scholarship for their livestock judging abilities and now compete for their respective schools: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates the Rensselaer Central High School livestock judging team on winning the 2017 FFA National Livestock Judging Competition and participation in a 2018 international competition.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this Resolution to Paige Longstreth, Zach Wamsley, Caleb Wamsley, Anna Hannon, Cody Goodman, and Ron Wamsley.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote. The Chair instructed the Secretary to inform the House of the passage of the resolution. House sponsors: Representatives Negele and Gutwein.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 65

Senate Concurrent Resolution 65, introduced by Senators Buchanan and Charbonneau:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating the 2018 Rensselaer Central High School livestock judging team on winning first place at the 2018 National 4-H Livestock Judging Competition.

Whereas, The Rensselaer Central High School 4-H livestock judging team took first place at the 2018 National 4-H Livestock Judging Competition in Kansas City, Missouri;

Whereas, Rensselaer's 4-H livestock judging team consisted of Anna Hannon, Tyler Hannon, Ashley Peterson, Gage Tebo, and coach Ron Wamsley;

Whereas, Rensselaer's livestock judging team took first place out of 27 other 4-H livestock judging teams from across the country;

Whereas, Rensselaer's livestock judging team competed in judging categories such as cattle, hogs, sheep, and goats; and

Whereas, Rensselaer's livestock judging team earned the right to travel overseas to Scotland for an international competition as a result of their 2018 National 4-H Livestock Judging Competition victory: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates the 2018 Rensselaer Central High School livestock judging team on winning first place at the 2018 National 4-H Livestock Judging Competition.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit copies of this Resolution to Anna Hannon, Tyler Hannon, Ashley Peterson, Gage Tebo, and coach Ron Wamsley.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote. The Chair instructed the Secretary to inform the House of the passage of the resolution. House sponsors: Representatives Gutwein and Negele.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 50

Senate Concurrent Resolution 50, introduced by Senator Zay:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating Caiden Lake of Oak Hill High School on winning the 2019 Indiana High School Athletic Association ("IHSAA") one meter diving state championship title.

Whereas, Caiden Lake, a senior at Oak Hill High School, won the 2019 IHSAA one meter diving state championship title with a score of 525.85 points;

Whereas, On his way to winning the state championship, Caiden won both the sectional and regional championships in one meter diving, with scores of 503.65 and 484.05 points, respectively;

Whereas, After the preliminary and semi-final rounds of the state finals, Caiden stood in third place, 13.25 points behind the leader, but Caiden executed his final three dives for 174 points to overcome the deficit and win the state championship title;

Whereas, His ninth dive in the finals scored 58.5 points to significantly close the gap, but Caiden's 10th dive was the game-changer, and Caiden perfectly executed a reverse two-and-a-half dive to score 63 points and put Caiden in the lead for good;

Whereas, After executing his final dive, a front three-and-a-half for 52.5 points, Caiden emerged the winner; and

Whereas, Mentored by coach Bobby Hart, Caiden won the 2019 state championship title in his second trip to the IHSAA diving state finals: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly congratulates Caiden Lake on winning the 2019 IHSAA one meter diving state championship title.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to Caiden Lake.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote. The Chair instructed the Secretary to inform the House of the passage of the resolution. House sponsor: Representative Wolkins.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 62

Senate Concurrent Resolution 62, introduced by Senators Sandlin, Freeman and Tomes:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing the 148th Annual Convention of the National Rifle Association taking place in Indianapolis, Indiana, from April 25-28, 2019.

Whereas, The State of Indiana and the City of Indianapolis are hosting the National Rifle Association's 148th Annual Convention from April 25-28, 2019;

Whereas, The National Rifle Association was formed in 1871 by Union veterans Col. William C. Church and Gen. George Wingate, with the primary goal to "promote and encourage rifle shooting on a scientific basis";

Whereas, The National Rifle Association has a proud history of promotion of marksmanship and firearms safety throughout its 148-year history, and has had a strong tradition of promoting shooting sports among America's youth, starting in 1903 with the establishment of youth rifle clubs at a number of military institutions and military academies;

Whereas, The National Rifle Association supports law enforcement through its Police Firearms Instructors Certification program, the first and only national training program of law enforcement officers;

Whereas, Through its support of civilian training personnel, with more than 125,000 certified instructors, 8,000 coaches, and 2,200 training counselors who train over 1 million firearms owners per year, the National Rifle Association promotes the safe and responsible ownership and use of firearms throughout the United States; and

Whereas, The 2019 Convention of the National Rifle Association is expected to bring 80,000 visitors to the State of Indiana and City of Indianapolis, leaving behind an estimated economic impact in excess of $55 million, and millions of dollars in state and local tax revenue: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly recognizes the 148th Annual Convention of the National Rifle Association and welcomes its members to the State of Indiana and the City of Indianapolis.

SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this Resolution to Dr. Chris Kopacki, Indiana State Director for the National Rifle Association.

The resolution was read in full and adopted by voice vote. The Chair instructed the Secretary to inform the House of the passage of the resolution. House sponsors: Representatives Speedy and Smaltz.
