IC 23-2-2.5-1

Definitions

Sec. 1. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Franchise" means a contract by which:

(1) a franchisee is granted the right to engage in the business of dispensing goods or services, under a marketing plan or system prescribed in substantial part by a franchisor;

(2) the operation of the franchisee's business pursuant to such a plan is substantially associated with the franchisor's trademark, service mark, trade name, logotype, advertising, or other commercial symbol designating the franchisor or its affiliate; and

(3) the person granted the right to engage in this business is required to pay a franchise fee.

"Franchise" includes a contract whereby the franchisee is granted the right to sell franchises on behalf of the franchisor. The term as defined in subdivisions (1), (2), and (3) does not include a contract where the franchisee, or any of its officers or directors at the time the contract is signed, has been in the type of business represented by the franchise or a similar business for at least two (2) years, and the parties to the contract anticipated, or should have anticipated, at the time the contract was entered into that the franchisee's gross sales derived from the franchised business during the first year of operations would not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the gross sales of all the franchisee's business operations.

(b) "Franchisee" means a person to whom a franchise is granted.

(c) "Franchisor" means a person who grants a franchise.

(d) "Sale" or "sell" includes every contract or agreement of sale of, contract to sell, or disposition of, a franchise or interest in a franchise for value.

(f) "Fraud" and "deceit" includes any misrepresentation in any manner of a material fact, any promise or representation or prediction as to the future not made honestly or in good faith, or the failure or omission to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

(g) "Offer" or "offer to sell" does not include the renewal or extension of an existing franchise where there is no interruption in the operation of the franchised business by the franchisee.

(h) "Publish" means to issue or circulate by newspaper, mail, radio, or television, or otherwise disseminate to the public.

(i) "Franchise fee" means any fee that a franchisee is required to pay directly or indirectly for the right to conduct a business to sell, resell, or distribute goods, services, or franchises under a contract agreement, including, but not limited to, any such payment for goods or services. "Franchise fee" does not include:

(p) "Designated family member" means any person named in a franchise agreement by a service station franchisee as the person entitled to fulfill the terms of the agreement on behalf of the franchisee if the franchisee dies before the term of the franchise has ended. Sales exempted by commissioner

Sec. 5. Section 9 does not apply to an offer or sale which the commissioner, by rule or order, exempts as not being comprehended within the purposes of this law and the registration of which he finds is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

Denial or revocation of exemptions; grounds

Sec. 6. The commissioner may, without a hearing, issue a stop order denying or revoking any exemption specified in sections 3, 4, or 5 with respect to an offer or sale if he finds that it is in the public interest and either:

(a) that there has been a failure to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter; or

(b) that the offer or sale would constitute misrepresentation to, or deceit or fraud on, the purchaser or offeree.

IC 23-2-2.5-7

Notice of denial or revocation of exemptions; hearing

Determination of exemption; request; fee; notice; hearing; order

Sec. 8. The commissioner may determine whether any proposed offer or sale is entitled to an exemption. However, the commissioner may decline to exercise that authority as to any such offer or sale. Any interested party desiring the commissioner to exercise that authority shall submit to the commissioner a verified statement of all material facts relating to the proposed offer or sale, which verified statement shall be accompanied by a request for a ruling as to the particular exemption claimed, together with a filing fee of fifty dollars ($50.00). After such notice to interested parties as the commissioner deems proper and after a hearing, if any, the commissioner may enter an order finding the proposed offer or sale entitled or not entitled to the exemption claimed. Any order so entered, unless an appeal be taken therefrom in the manner prescribed in this chapter is binding upon the commissioner and upon all interested parties if the proposed offer or sale of a franchise when consummated or issued conforms in every relevant and material particular with the facts set forth in the verified statement submitted. (Formerly: Acts 1975, P.L.262, SEC.1.)

remedy. Upon proper showing, a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order, declaratory judgment or other appropriate remedy shall be granted and, in addition to and independent of any other remedy granted herein, a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The court may not require the commissioner to post a bond. (Formerly: Acts 1975, P.L.262, SEC.1.)

Violations; orders and notices; hearing; costs; civil penalties; enforcement action

Sec. 34. (a) If it appears to the commissioner that:

- (1) the offer of any franchise is subject to registration under this chapter and it is being, or it has been, offered for sale without such offer first being registered; or

(2) a person has engaged in or is about to engage in an act, a practice, or a course of business constituting a violation of this chapter or a rule or an order under this chapter;

the commissioner may investigate and may issue, with or without a prior hearing, orders and notices as the commissioner determines to be in the public interest, including cease and desist orders, orders to show cause, and notices. After notice and an opportunity for hearing, the commissioner may enter an order of rescission, restitution, or disgorgement, including interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) per year, directed to a person who has violated this chapter or a rule or order under this chapter. In addition to all other remedies, the commissioner may bring an action in the name of and on behalf of the state against any person participating in or about to participate in a violation of this chapter, to enjoin the person from continuing or doing an act furthering a violation of this chapter and may obtain the appointment of a receiver or conservator. Upon a proper showing by the commissioner, the court shall enter an order of the commissioner directing rescission, restitution, or disgorgement against a person who has violated this chapter or a rule or order under this chapter.

(b) Upon the issuance of an order or a notice by the commissioner under subsection (a), the commissioner shall promptly notify the respondent of the following:

- (1) That the order or notice has been issued.
- (2) The reasons the order or notice has been issued.
- (3) That upon the receipt of a written request the matter will be set for a hearing to commence not later than forty-five (45) business days after the commissioner receives the request, unless the respondent consents to a later date.

If the respondent does not request a hearing and the commissioner does not order a hearing, the order or notice will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the commissioner. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the commissioner, after giving notice of the hearing, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination.

(c) In a final order, the commissioner may charge the costs of an investigation or a proceeding conducted in connection with a violation of:

- (1) this chapter; or
- (2) a rule or an order adopted or issued under this chapter;

to be paid as directed by the commissioner in the order.

(d) In a proceeding in a circuit or superior court under this section, the commissioner is entitled to recover all costs and expenses of investigation to which the commissioner would be entitled in an administrative proceeding, and the court shall include the costs in its final judgment.

(e) If the commissioner determines, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, that a person has violated this chapter, the commissioner may, in addition to or instead of all other remedies, impose a civil penalty upon the person in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each violation. An appeal from the decision of the commissioner imposing a civil penalty under this subsection may be taken by an aggrieved party under section 44 of this chapter.

(f) The commissioner may bring an action in the circuit or superior court of Marion County to enforce payment of any penalty imposed under subsection (e).

(g) Penalties collected under this section shall be deposited in the securities division enforcement account established under IC 23-19-6-1(f).
