Citations Affected: IC 35-31.5-2-24.5; IC 35-43.

Synopsis: Agricultural operations and criminal trespass. Expands the criminal trespass statute by making it a crime to knowingly or intentionally enter the real property of another person without the person's consent. Allows an agricultural operation to conspicuously post a notice at the agricultural operation's locations that lists prohibited acts that may compromise the agricultural operation's trade secrets or operations. Provides that a person who knowingly or intentionally commits an act at an agricultural operation that is prohibited and listed on such a notice commits a Level 6 felony. Expands criminal trespass to include certain acts involving agricultural operations. Raises the penalty for criminal trespass if certain levels of pecuniary loss result from the criminal trespass.

Effective: July 1, 2014.
