RESOLUTIONS ON FIRST READING

House Concurrent Resolution 56

Representatives GiaQuinta, Leonard, Carbaugh and Cox introduced House Concurrent Resolution 56:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION recognizing Todd Webster, Tyler Webster, Matthew Wirtz, Ben Groeneweg, Mike Kiester, and Ted Nitza.

Whereas, Todd Webster, Tyler Webster, Matthew Wirtz, Ben Groeneweg, Mike Kiester, and Ted Nitza traveled a great distance in order to help those in need;

Whereas, City Utilities employees Matthew Wirtz, Ben Groeneweg, Mike Kiester, and Ted Nitza along with Todd Webster and Tyler Webster traveled to La Vega, Guatemala, a village of about 900 people with intermittent electricity and only one well to supply clean water;

Whereas, The village of La Vega is typical of 51 percent of Guatemala, where the residents live in poverty and where only about 25 percent of water systems disinfect the water they deliver to homes and businesses;

Whereas, Before the arrival of the team, La Vega had a year-round well that was hand-dug about 25 or 30 feet and was located only 50 feet from a latrine;

Whereas, Living Water International, a religious nonprofit from Houston, researched the project and provided the drill rig, and Todd Webster, Tyler Webster, Matthew Wirtz, Ben Groeneweg, Mike Kiester, and Ted Nitza and others provided the labor;

Whereas, The team worked 12 hour days but was repaid many times over by the kindness of the villagers;

Whereas, Before long the team was pumping air down the well to clean the drilling water out, sending a spray of water into the streets, and the children into the streets to dance and chant Aqua! Aqua!; and

Whereas, These compassionate and loving Hoosiers are shining examples of the people throughout our state: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the Senate concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly thanks Todd Webster, Tyler Webster, Matthew Wirtz, Ben Groeneweg, Mike Kiester, and Ted Nitza for their service to those in need and their willingness to travel far away and live under intense heat and questionable conditions to help a village improve its living conditions.

SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Todd Webster, Tyler Webster, Matthew Wirtz, Ben Groeneweg, Mike Kiester, and Ted Nitza and their families.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution. Senate sponsor: Senator Wyss.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 16

The Speaker handed down Senate Concurrent Resolution 16, sponsored by Representatives Speedy and Burton:

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION urging the Federal Communications Commission to more effectively prioritize the regulation of telemarketing calls and the use of automatic telephone dialing systems, calling number identification service (Caller ID), and other calling party number (CPN) services offered by telecommunications providers.

Whereas, Pursuant to Title 47 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has the responsibility of regulating telemarketing calls and the use of automatic telephone dialing systems, calling number identification service (Caller ID) and other calling party number (CPN) services offered by telecommunications providers;

Whereas, Certain developments in telecommunications technology, such as Voice Over Internet Protocol (VOIP) telecommunications, Caller ID spoofing, inexpensive international calling, and profit-sharing from Calling Name Database (CNAM) look-up services, have led to a proliferation of unwanted telemarketing calls;

Whereas, In the past two years, the Indiana Attorney General's office received over 33,000 complaints from Indiana citizens concerning unwanted telemarketing calls, and the National Do Not Call Registry received an additional 57,395 Do Not Call complaints from Indiana citizens;

Whereas, In the past two years, at least 56% of the telemarketing complaints received by the Indiana Attorney General's office involved robocalls, and at least two thirds of the complaints involved spoofed Caller ID numbers and/or international calls;

Whereas, The Office of the Indiana Attorney General and other partners in state and federal agencies have reached their jurisdictional limits with respect to combating unwanted telemarketing calls;

Whereas, The existing regulations promulgated by the FCC under the Communications Act of 1934 and the Telephone Consumer Protection Act have been ineffective in stemming the tide of unwanted and illegal telemarketing calls, leaving a gap in regulation at the federal level; and

Whereas, Despite recent investigations and issuance of citations by the Telecommunications Consumers Division of the FCC's Enforcement Bureau, the gap created by the reluctance of the FCC to prioritize and effectively regulate the unwanted telemarketing calls has engendered a climate where telemarketers are emboldened to flout the existing, ineffective regulations and anonymously blast millions of unwanted telemarketing calls without fear of discovery or punishment: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, the House of Representatives concurring:

SECTION 1. That the Indiana General Assembly hereby urges the Federal Communications Commission to more effectively and aggressively prioritize the federal regulation of telemarketing calls and the use of automatic telephone dialing systems, calling number identification service (Caller ID), and other calling party number (CPN) services offered by telecommunications providers.

SECTION 2. That this petition should not prejudice, in any way, the ability of Indiana to regulate consumer telephone communications under the procedures prescribed by Indiana and federal law.

SECTION 3. That the Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to the Federal Communications Commission, United States Senator Dan Coats, United States Senator Joe Donnelly, United States Representative Peter Visclosky, United States Representative Jackie Walorski, United States Representative Marlin Stutzman, United States Representative Todd Rokita, United States Representative Susan Brooks, United States Representative Luke Messer, United States Representative André Carson, United States Representative Larry Bucshon, and United States Representative Todd Young.

The resolution was read a first time and adopted by voice vote. The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of the passage of the resolution.
